SUMMARY

I am a Junior Front-End Developer who made a life-changing decision to enter the IT field with full dedication. I specialize in HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, and React. I'm driven by a strong desire to grow, create meaningful projects, and be part of a team that builds great products. I believe that with hard work and persistence, I can achieve any goal.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

WebStudio, GitHub

(HTML, SASS, JS)

A fully responsive digital agency website, developed independently during front-end training. Features include a modal contact form, interactive portfolio filters, and accessible navigation. Built with semantic HTML, modern CSS, and vanilla JavaScript.

Green Farm, GitHub

(HTML, SASS, JS)

A responsive landing page for an eco-farm, built as a team project during front-end training. I developed the Hero section with a clean layout, responsive design, and smooth scroll. Focused on semantic HTML, accessibility, and teamwork via GitHub.

Portfolio, GitHub

(HTML, SASS, JS)

A responsive portfolio website created during front-end training. I implemented the Reviews section with adaptive styling, ensuring visual consistency and accessibility. Collaborated with a team using GitHub for version control.
